Wilcox to Try for Downing's OLD WIZARD GIVES

Wilcox's attempt to lower Downing's record for the motor-paced mile will probably be the speed feature of the night Downing's record is 1:15 2-5. This is the time Wilcox tried to beat a week or two ago and failed. Wilcox will score a big hit if he can accomplish the feat.

John O'Connor and Wilford Basinger will score a big hit if he can accomplish the feat.
Finley, the Australian champion pace follower, is hard on Wilcox's heels, and has issued a deft for Sunday night that should give the saucer a whirlwind special for that night. Pye and Finley are to get another chance at Duer and Wilcox and this time Finley wants to wager the rest of his worldly possessions that he can beat Wilcox and his partner to the tape. Other lesser lights aided in the entertainment, after which refreshments were served in an adjoining cavern.

Charles W. Goodman, official decorator for the Potlach of Seattle, made an interesting short talk during the course of the entertainment. He praised the work outlined by the wards of the Wizard, and said that nothing could so well advertise the city of Sait Lake. He said that he knew of no other city that had the opportunity and the material with which to present such a carnival as that planned by the Wizard of the Wasatch. Mr. Goodman is here to decorate the N. E. A. convention, and he said last night that the granting of the money for the delegation by the city commission really meant that he would have charge of it, as that was his understanding with City Commissioner George D.
